

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 1, 1881.

Aberdeen, the neighbor town,
Across our little "crick,"
Has found a water medicine,
That rivals our Blue Lick.
And now the lame, the halt, the blind,
And each dyspeptic "cratur,"
May go and find a remedy,
In Simmons' Regulator.

Holiday Directory.

The following are dealers in holiday goods. We cordially recommend them to the patronage of our readers:

A. M. Rogers, boots, shoes, hats, etc.
John Wheeler, oysters, game and good things generally.
F. H. Traxel, the confectioner.
Miss Lou Powling, millinery, etc.

To Business Men.

The success of the BULLETIN as a daily newspaper, we are pleased to say, has far exceeded our most sanguine expectations. A little more than a week old the EVENING BULLETIN is already in favor with more than three hundred of the best people in Maysville, the suburbs and at Aberdeen, and is read every day at their firesides. It is welcomed in the households of men of both political parties for the reason that it is more of a news medium than it is a political journal. Its wide circulation, therefore, in Maysville and the territory tributary, makes it a most valuable vehicle for business announcements, which we respectfully invite to our columns. Our rates of advertising are very low, being less than one-half the charge for the same number of publications in the weekly, and where it is desired to make use of both papers a liberal discount from our regular rates will be given. We assure you that the DAILY BULLETIN affords most excellent facilities for reaching the public ear.

HECHINGER, THOMAS & Co., killed 200 hogs yesterday, making a total of 1464 to date.

The prospect now is that Mr. Beck will be returned to the Senate with almost unprecedented unanimity. He has no opposition.

The building on Second street occupied by George McCarthy, is to be repaired and improved. Mr. J. R. Soursley will begin the work Monday.

This morning at half past four o'clock the Ohio, coming down the river, a short distance above this city, collided with a tow boat and had her guard crushed.

The three story brick business house and dwelling on the north side of Second street, belonging to the Collins heirs was sold this week to Charles H. White for $9,100.

We venture to say that our enterprising suburb, Chester, will donate the ground needed for street car stables. What do you say, gentlemen, to taking hold of the enterprise again?

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court since our last report:

Annie M. Phister and husband, to Wm. Bertram, lot in city of Maysville on north side of Grant street. Consideration $500.

Mr. JAMES H. HALL who is to-day announced as a candidate for councilman in the fifth ward, is well known to the public as a liberal minded, enterprising citizen who has managed his own business and the affairs of the various public offices he has held prudently, economically and successfully. As the representative of the people of the fifth ward in the Council his clear headed ideas and practical good sense will be of vast benefit to them.

The Mascotte.

The following notice of the New England Opera Company, which appears here to-night, is from the Cincinnati Enquirer:

The most entertaining performances of the season were given Thursday and Friday nights by the New England Opera Company, in Audran's latest comic opera, "The Mascotte." "The Mascotte" contains some charming airs and the dialogue overflows with wit and humor. Local hits were introduced with great effect in the enthusiastic applause of the audience, after each local rally, testified. The opera was handsomely and appropriately costumed and put on the stage in excellent style. The parts were well cast. Mr. Skiff as "Pipito," both sung and acted with great spirit and grace. Miss Loraine was charming as "Bettina," displaying a clear and well cultivated voice, and a natural, easy style of acting, which was extremely agreeable. The "Gobbie Song," between "Bettina and Pipito," won the hearty applause of the audience each night. Mr. Dixey, as "Lorenzo XVII," had a difficult part, and it was most admirably sustained. He is a great burlesque actor, and kept the audience in a constant uproar. Miss Leyton, as "Fiametta," proved herself a pretty and charming actress. Mr. Ashley made a handsome prince, and Mr. Davis as the "Physician," and Mr. Haskell, as "Rocco," were great favorites with the audience. Miss Minnie Walton displayed a charming voice in rendering her lines in the second act; Miss Davenport also. The chorus was well trained, and sang with spirit. The opera is full of life and good humor, and many of the scenes are picturesque and powerful. The long and frequent applause of the audience the second evening testified their warm appreciation of the company's efforts.
